WOMEN WANT CLEAN STREETS.

THEIR BEALTH PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION AGAINST THE CONTRACT SYSTEM.

The Woman's Health Protective Association of Brooklyn has put its stamp of disapproval on Sent-tor Marshall's bill authorizing the borough of Brooklyn to continue contracting for its street cleaning instead of having the city do it. It is expected that as soon as the bill comes up on its third reading, or at least before it is signed, the officers of the association will go to Albany to protest against it. The women assert that the existing con-cition of the city streets is an argument against perpetuating the present system.

MILDERBERGER HAD LARGE IDEAS. A DRINK-CRAZED MAN MADE THINGS LIVELY IN

Huntington, Long Island, March 18,-C, Victor Milderherger was last evening sent to a private sanitarium in Amityville to await examination o his sanity. He had been making things livebere for a week, and it is believed that he is deranged. Milderberger, it is alleged drank heavily in the early part of the week, and then wrecked the furniture in his house. After demolishing things he visited several hotels, taking molishing things he visited several hotels, taking possession of one and holding it for an hour or more. He gave his watch and his ring to a hotel-keeper to hold and then started on a rampage through the village. Every one he met he invited to drank with him and when they refused he became threatening. He said he was worth $50,000, 000, that his grandmother was a daughter of the King of Holland and that his income was $50,000 a vest.

SAID TO BE AGAINST MISS DECKER.

THE GOOD GROUND SCHOOL-TEACHER'S CASE DECIDED, BUT THE RESULT NOT MADE PERMIT

Riverhead, Long Island, March 18.—Commissioner Charles Howell, who presided at the trial of Miss Leah Mand Decker, the Good Ground school-teacher necused by Seymour Squires of making love to his son, Joseph, and then rejecting him, which caused the boy to try to kill himself, has practically de cided the case. The taking of testimony was ended last Saturday, and since that time Commissioner Howell has been reading it over. He admitted to-day that he had made up his mind as to his decision, but he was not yet ready to make it public. It is said that the decision is arginst Miss Decker, and this seems to be the general impression in Good Ground. If the rumor is true site will probably be compelled to give up-school-teaching in this State. JUSTICE CLEMENT'S WILL FILED.
